

A few ideas to brush up your English if needed:

- On www.amazon.co.uk, you can buy DVDs in English with English subtitles (Zone 2 DVDs for Europe)
- On « Voice of America » (<http://www.voanews.com/learningenglish>), you will find texts that you can listen to (different themes), and you will be able to register to a podcast giving international news.
- Another podcast : eslpod.com (= english as a second language podcast). For those who have a very low level in English ; The goal is to learn vocabulary through small simple dialogues.

You can download them on your MP3, and then listen to them in your car, in the subway....
